IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT OUR BESPOKE FINISHES

Due to the hand-finished nature of our bespoke products, there may be slight variations in colour and texture, which are individual to each product. The origination of the brass and manufacturing processes may also affect the finish, from product to product and batch to batch.

Therefore Crofts & Assinder cannot guarantee that the finish on this product will match exactly the finish of any previously issued samples / products and any subsequent orders, which you may place with Crofts & Assinder. However, we will make every effort to match finishes as closely as possible. PLEASE NOTE that due to the inherent nature of the in-house finishing provided, products with a bespoke finish can unfortunately not be returned and / or refunded.
